

Logo and Statement Guidelines

The purpose of this fact sheet is to establish guidelines for the National Registry of CPE Sponsors logo. Proper use of the logo and accompanying language is a requirement of sponsorship and is essential for consistent communications. Sponsors should use this fact sheet as a reference when producing promotional materials.

Definition of Promotional Materials

The logo and statement must be represented correctly in all promotional materials. Promotional materials consist of any type of printed or electronic communication that provides course information to prospective course participants.

Examples include:

- Brochures
- Course catalogs
- Pamphlets
- Direct mail
- Web sites
- Emails
- Letters
- Memorandums

National Registry Statement

As set forth in the National Registry Sponsor Agreement, the National Registry statement must be used in its entirety and without alteration, in promotional and other materials distributed to prospective course participants:

(Insert your organization's name) is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.NASBARegistry.org.

The above statement is always required in promotional materials. Use of the logo with the statement is not required, but is advised. The statement must always be located next to the logo except in cases where the logo is used in digital media. In those instances, use of a free-standing logo is permissible provided that a user who clicks on the logo is taken to a separate page or pop-up window that displays the National Registry statement.

Contact Information

The logo is available in print and electronic versions. To receive additional copies of the camera ready art sheet or to obtain the logo via email, please contact a member of the National Registry team. NASBA's days and hours of operation are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. CST.
