G7 Responder Shirt

Style G7-GBD-POLO

The new G7 Responder range is being launched at the Emergency Services Show 2019.

These garments are an exciting step forward in style, comfort and practicality for the modern medical responder. Practical and comfortable these trousers have been designed with durability and style in mind.

The G7 Responder Polo Shirts are made in the UK using a tactile, UK woven, duty weight, rip-stop polyester cotton material. The body of the shirt is made from a silver treated moisture wicking polyester material to aid temperature regulation, help eliminate odours and allow maximum movement.

Available in short sleeved and long-sleeved version in a variety of colours.

Features:

- Made from 220g rip-stop polyester cotton and silver treated polyester for comfort and durability
- No roll collar with 5" zip placket
- Taped collar seams for comfort
- Three pen-pockets on left sleeve
- Shoulder epaulettes with Velcro hook & loop closures
- Available in short and long sleeves
- Can be embroidered with your unit's logos or crest
- Made in Great Britain
