What our Corporate Members say...

F24

F24's longstanding corporate membership with the BCI has enabled us to showcase our commitment to our stakeholders - by being on top of the latest trends in business continuity. Whether it is the best practices or the thought leadership activities, we have benefited from BCI's wealth of knowledge in shaping our position in the industry.

We recognize that the BCI has been consistent in raising awareness and educating on business continuity strategies and we value this dedication as we believe it is crucial not only for us but for the BCM industry at large.

Marina Chatterjee,
Content Marketing Manager,
F24.

It offers our employees access to best practices, chances for personal and career development, and unrivalled networking opportunities virtually and globally. BCI's dedication to educating business continuity professionals is why Fusion is proud to be a corporate member!

BCI's commitment to supporting and nurturing practitioners is moving the industry forward. Through it, we are not only able to better our company and our employees, but also use the knowledge and expertise to help our clients. At Fusion, we are committed to customer success, which is why continuing to partner with BCI is so important.

Tracey Forbes-Rice,
Senior Vice President,
Fusion Risk Management.
