

INSTITUTE OF SEARCH AND TECHNICAL RESCUE

The Institute of Search and Technical Rescue exists to promote critical reflection, learning and informal peer exchanges to improve service delivery and raise standards within the fields of Search and Technical Rescue.

We provide professional accreditation, continuous professional development and training accreditation to those working in and serving the search and technical rescue sector.

Membership benefits include:

- Personal accreditation with the use of post-nominals
- Free annual conference
- CPD via online courses, internal examinations and events
- Access to a global network of rescue professionals
- Discounted equipment and clothing

www.rescue-institute.org