

Fight the Pain.™

Try for free for 14 days, return if you are not satisfied

More and more people spend all day sitting and working in front of a computer screen. We move too little and sit too much in static positions which we weren't built for. Many people struggle with pain in their arms, shoulders and neck.

At Mousetrapper, we have a mission: No one should have to endure pain on account of poor mouse positioning. Together, we can fight pain – experience Mousetrapper. That's why we are now offering new users the chance to try Mousetrapper for 14 days – completely free! If you aren't satisfied, no problem: simply return the product.

Try Mousetrapper – the wellness mouse – and experience the difference.
