Foresight brought to you by Peregrine Risk Management

Managing Risk, Anywhere, Anytime

Are you assessing your organisations Travel Safety Programme for post pandemic travel? Have you a need to empower your travellers whilst enhancing your organisational duty of care and resilience?

Time is precious, ever more so following the COVID-19 pandemic. At Peregrine Risk Management we know how laborious and bureaucratic a Pre-Travel risk assessment process can be, however we want to change the way you operate; we want to save you time and money underpinned by advanced, simple technology that will empower your travellers and enhance organisational resilience .

Foresight, from Peregrine Risk Management, is a highly secure, easy to use platform that is transforming and streamlining pre-travel risk assessment processes for organisations, across the globe. As well as saving you time and money, Foresight will enhance your travellers' personal safety. It will improve your organisation's safety culture, build in resilience, meet duty of care obligations and crucially - empower your travellers through trip ownership. Our innovative solution will allow key stakeholders to set risk tolerance and appetite intelligently, across varying travel locations and activities that are wholly bespoke to your organisation and people.

By creating a pre-defined risk criterion tailored to your needs, we can allow numerous, multi-factored decisions to be made with diligence, speed, consistency and confidence. By replacing old-style and bureaucratic 'paper based' assessments with Foresight – we can provide you with a swift and fully comprehensive approval process.

Our platform will enable advanced visibility of travel risk, oversight of travellers and automation of tasks; all brought seamlessly together, for your convenience, on a tech-friendly dashboard, branded for your organisation. Foresight will make crucial and measurable differences to your business and by using Foresight it will prevent you from looking back in hindsight.
