

CAPTURE

REMASTERED

Improved cable management allows up to 12" of cable to be contained within the detector

Strengthened plastic housing for terminal block provides effortless cover installation

Capture A20 anti-masking upgrades prevent latched anti-mask events, eliminating site visits to reset the device

New pet & long range lenses to cover all installation types. Optical geometric lens with precise infrared technology for improved detection accuracy and superior pet resilience

Improved microwave sensitivity for greater flexibility when configuring the microwave detection range

The pet sensitivity has been refined on the P15 models, ensuring accurate detection of intruders while continuing to reduce the risk of false alarms caused by pets

Enhanced testing and new algorithmic firmware, increase battery performance and ricochet stability

Locking cam materials have been overhauled for increased rigidity and ease of use

Texecom