

CDVI Announces Participation in The Security Event

High Wycombe, UK, January 30, 2020 – CDVI, a leading access control manufacturer worldwide, announced its participation in The Security Event, a UK focused security professional and installer exhibition.

This three-day event at the NEC Birmingham will be held on April 28-30, 2020.

CDVI's team of over ten industry professionals are attending the event, including Paul Ramsay, General Manager, and Aaron Sadler, Training Manager.

"For the second year running, we are committed to attending The Security Event and showcasing our innovative Access Control solutions to all visitors. Strong from the positive feedback our products got last year, we are looking forward to more successes this year!" – Paul Ramsay, General Manager.

About The Security Event

In its second year, The Security Event has kept all its promises to bring back a UK focused security professional and installer exhibition, back at its traditional home at the NEC Birmingham. The Security Event is set to attract thousands of attendees over three days by providing a tailored content programme and access to the UK's leading security brands.
