

Sancroft, St. Paul's

Located in the iconic Paternoster Square, Sancroft, St. Paul's, is conveniently centralized, easy to access and surrounded by a collection of historical London landmarks within the City. Unique to London venues, this property boasts an exceptional blueprint with meeting rooms surrounded by generous natural light, exposed ceilings ranging from 9' to 14' height, and a 900-person Hall space. Inspired by the craftsmanship in the local neighborhood, Convene's newest London property takes curated design to the next level. The interior design restores medieval vistas and perspectives, while reflecting the contemporary architecture within the otherwise traditional area.

Apart from the impressive scale and design, this property is one of the largest meeting and event spaces within the city limits. With a max capacity of 1200 and 7 large meeting rooms, this property's intentional architecture makes it the perfect backdrop for exhibitions, large hybrid conferences, evening receptions, executive off sites, seminars and other gatherings.
