

Flying with Qantas, the Spirit of Australia

When it comes to travelling to Australia, Qantas believes the journey should be as memorable as the destination

With over 100 years of experience, as soon as they step on board with Qantas, passengers experience an exceptional level of personal service and superior product offering. From our friendly service and delicious locally inspired cuisine to the spacious cabin classes and excellent inflight entertainment, flying with Qantas is worth every moment.

With double-daily services from London Heathrow, passengers can choose to fly non-stop to Australia on the Qantas Dreamliner, or fly via Singapore on our refurbished A380.

With our unrivalled domestic network connecting to over 60 destinations across Australia and New Zealand*, whether your customers are looking to explore the city sights or have an outback adventure, it's worth every moment with Qantas.
