

Creating an Inclusive Traveller Safety Programme

About this course:	This course is designed for those looking to develop an inclusive travel management and safety programme to support their diverse business travellers. The course uses rich case studies to highlight the different aspects and mitigations for different minority groups including: women, LGBTQ+, inexperienced, disabled, neurodiverse travellers as well as addressing aspects of race, ethnicity and culture. + This course comes with an optional 2-day workshop and consultancy package to help you to design and build out your inclusive travel safety programme from the ground up.
Who is it for?	Travel managers and staff booking business travel, HR, Health & Safety and DE&I employees.
Duration:	3 hours
Bespoke or off-the-shelf	This course is tailored towards the specific risks faced by your organisation, industry and traveller profile. It will incorporate any relevant internal and external resources and will take into account the maturity of your current travel security programme.
Delivery method	Virtually or in-person
Learning Objectives:	On completion of this course, delegates will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify the risks facing their business travel community • Understand the risks associated with different minority groups • Understand how to be a great ally and to support your colleagues • Identify best practice to ensure the safety and security of your business travellers • Have a critical eye over the risks associated with various aspects of a trip, including by region, accommodation and air and ground transportation • Identify changes to be implemented in business travel processes and resources • Book business travel with safety in mind
Syllabus:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychological Safety • Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in travel safety • Common challenges related to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Women travellers • Disabled travellers • LGBTQ+ travellers • Race, ethnicity & culture • Being a brilliant ally • Travel Safety & diversity considerations • ISO 31030 • Engaging with the wider community • Getting inclusive travel safety right

Find out more

training@maiden-voyage.com