Welcome to the new era of travel. Welcome to Lufthansa Allegris.

A man with a grey beard and a woman are seated at a wooden table in a dimly lit First Class suite. The man is on the left, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, looking thoughtfully at the chessboard. The woman is on the right, wearing a blue top, holding a glass of red wine and looking at the board. On the table is a chess set, a bowl of snacks, and a glass of wine. The background features blue ambient lighting and a dark wood panel.
