

THOMPSON
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Thompson Washington DC in the hip Navy Yard neighborhood, is just steps from Nationals Park and nearby the Wharf and Capitol, where shopping, dining and nightlife surround. Surveyor is a true-American-inspired supper house, drawing inspiration from traditional American dishes and classic spirit-forward cocktails. Our Navy Yard restaurant serves delicious cuisine daily and is enjoyed by hotel guests and locals alike. The Rooftop Bar is a perfect perch for cocktails and views of the Anacostia River and DC's hottest new neighborhood. The hotel is a few blocks from the Metro with easy access to all neighborhoods of the city.

HOTEL DESIGN

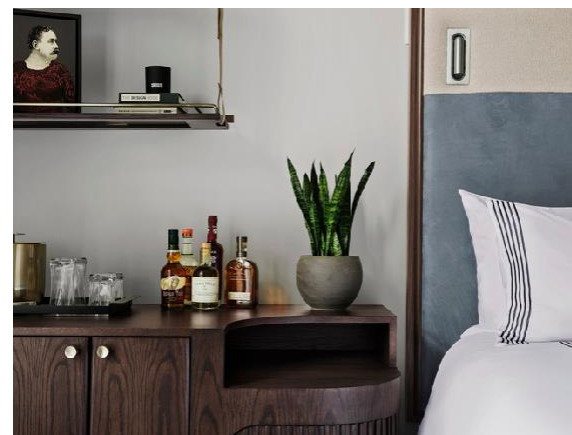

The contemporary design by Studios Architecture will distinguish the hotel's 11-story exterior with design inspiration taken from the area's renowned Navy Yard, incorporating a deeply textured facade that embodies the historic industrial language of the neighborhood with a rigorous and articulated composition of dark grey iron-spot bricks and large industrial inspired windows.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The interiors, designed by Parts and Labor Design, are constructed with fluidity and movement, the softly curved architecture provides a backdrop to art and object, while the guest rooms have a slightly colonial feel that also quietly references a ship's cabin.
