La Residence is more than a home away from home – it's your very own seaside retreat. Once the private home of the resort site's original landowner, this Thai-Victorian architectural wonder was inspired by Hua Hin's own Mrigadayavan Palace (Summer Palace), built in the 1920s for King Rama VI.

Set on meticulously landscaped grounds with private entrance, the two-story La Residence at InterContinental Hua Hin Resort comprises 1,071 square metres of pure exclusivity. Layout includes three sumptuous bedrooms; two living rooms, one on each level; two dining rooms (convertible for use as meeting space); fully equipped kitchen; and expansive upstairs balcony for sweeping Gulf of Thailand views. Additional features and amenities include a private infinity-edge pool, large and secluded gardens ideal for weddings and other activities, and direct beach access.

La Residence guests experience the utmost comfort in addition to an array of personalized amenities such as dedicated 24-hour butler service. Among full Club InterContinental benefits are afternoon tea and pre-dinner cocktails in the resort's Club Lounge. Additional dining delights include options such as floating breakfast or afternoon tea served in the guests' own private swimming pool.

InterContinental Hua Hin Express

The InterContinental Hua Hin Resort is dedicated to preserving and honouring the rich history and cultural heritage of Hua Hin. Renowned for its elegant 1920s design, the resort pays tribute to Hua Hin's golden era of travel during the establishment of the train route from Bangkok to Hua Hin. This significant historical event played a pivotal role in shaping the city into the vibrant destination it is today. The design of the train itself is reminiscent of the 1920s era. We have recreated an iconic voyage in history by introducing the InterContinental Hua Hin Express which features a route within the hotel offering guests an opportunity to immerse in the rich heritage and charm of Hua Hin.

RESORT SUSTAINABILITY

IHG Journey To Tomorrow

Guided by IHG's purpose to provide True Hospitality for Good, we will work side by side with those who stay, work and partner with us, to help shape the future of responsible travel – supporting our people and making a positive difference to our local communities, while preserving our planet's beauty and diversity long into the future.

- To reduce plastic waste, our resort has replaced plastic bottles with refillable glass bottles for meetings and events reducing its impact on the environment.
- At Jaras Hua Hin, we proudly support and prioritise locally sourced products from farmers and fishermen in the area. By partnering with local farmers and fishermen, we ensure that our ingredients are fresh, sustainable, and of the highest quality.
- We partnered with Palisa Farm, a certified organic farm, that supplies organically grown fruits and vegetables to our resort.
- Our sustainable poultry source: Klong Phai Farm is founded on principles of respect for animal health and the environment, Klong Phai Farm raises free-range chickens and produces eggs in a serene habitat. The farm uses no hormones or antibiotics. For its commitment to both gastronomy and community, Klong Phai Farm has been officially recognised as a Disciple of Escoffier in Asia Pacific.
