Join us in the iconic quarry setting for three days of live demonstrations, static displays and the opportunity to see the very latest products and services on the market.

With an expanded Showground Pavilion accommodating more indoor exhibits than ever before and a fresh new networking café in the heart of the showground, Hillhead 2024 promises to be the largest meeting place for the industry yet.

Visitors to this year's show will be able to see both Hillhead regulars and a host of new companies showcasing everything from large machinery to essential services with up to 600 exhibitors set to attend. The four live demonstration areas will once again be a hive of activity where spectators can see a selection of machinery operating in a real quarry environment. Read on to find out more about the demonstrations and who will be exhibiting this June.

Come to Hillhead to see the latest technology that will shape the industry going forward, as the sector continues its evolution towards a more digital, autonomous and low carbon future.

We look forward to welcoming you to Hillhead 2024.
