The World Comes to OTC

WHY EXHIBIT

OTC delivers a unique experience for exhibitors to interact with global energy professionals as they share their insights on technological advances, safety, and environmentally focused solutions, and economic and regulatory impacts of the offshore energy sector.

This is your opportunity to engage with world leaders, CEOs, and government officials from around the world at OTC 2022. OTC provides the ability for companies to develop business relationships and tap into emerging regions that are vital to offshore development. Even those who are new to the marketplace have seen that by participating in OTC, they obtain recognition necessary for their growth and visibility to thousands of industry professionals.

OTC is our largest trade show of the year. As this show is well attended by both our international and domestic customers, it provides us a unique face to face opportunity to introduce and discuss our new product technologies and market strategies...OTC gives us a strategic gauge of the present market conditions and an outlook for the coming year. – Kim Lamont, GoWell International

The OTC exhibition provides a venue for us to meet with our current customers, discuss possible opportunities with new potential clients, and explore what's new in the Oil and Gas marketplace. It's a great opportunity to see new and existing technologies, discuss market conditions, and see what the future may hold for the oil and gas marketplace.
