Satisfying animal and art lovers across the globe with my illustrative range of contemporary homewares and gifts!

Given the terrible year that was 2020, I am kicking off 2021 with a bang! I am delighted and extremely excited to be introducing 2 new ranges; our Highland Cow Love and Christmas Reindeer - I do hope you love them as much as I do!

Drawing inspiration from popular wildlife, I create artistic and distinctive designs which are brought to life on a variety of high quality, beautiful and practical gifts, all of which have been made in the UK.

From canvas shopper bags, kitchenware, fabric notice boards and bone china mugs there is a gift to suit everyone with a love for colour, art and nature!

I launched my company in 2012 and in working with a small, tight-knit team we have grown the company to supply 250+ retailers worldwide as well as produce bespoke ranges for Sainsbury's, TJX, BBC Worldwide and The Hunterian.

HIGHLAND COW LOVE

My Highland Cow Love range has been printed in earthy tones of orange, green and brown and features my illustrative design of a parent and child highland cow sharing a tender moment in big, open fields. The hills in the background are inspired by my travels, gazing out the aeroplane window to the fields below I always imagined them as being a giant patchwork quilt. The colours and textures would always vary from country to country but nothing felt more familiar and welcoming than the fields on my home turf, even if the Scottish weather I was coming back to was awful!

When I designed this collection at the end of 2020 I wanted to create designs that were wholesome, positive and heart-warming. 2020 was the year we all had to embrace a much slower pace of life and begin appreciating simple things such as a walk in the park and uninterrupted time with our loved ones. I hope this collection featuring affectionate parent and child 'Heilan Coos' grazing happily in lush pastures helps bring a little bit of joy and feel-good vibes to people's every day lives.

CHRISTMAS REINDEER

Printed in festive red, green, brown and featuring my illustrations of reindeer and winter foliage this is a collection I am super excited about because included in the range are 2 brand new products; napkins and table runners!

As with all our collections, I like to include 2 or 3 design variations and so some products feature the heavily decorative winter floral pattern whilst others show a more pared-back pattern of Christmas shrubberies and reindeer. Making up the floral pattern are my illustrations of boxwood, mistletoe, cedar, Scot's pine, snowberries, and winterberries.

ROBIN

Unsurprisingly this collection does extremely well in the run-up to Christmas! Products in this range feature my detailed illustration of a robin and decorative pattern of winter foliage and holly berries. In creating this collection I deliberately avoided using overtly Christmassy colours, opting for warm brown tones instead of festive green colours to give the range a contemporary look and feel. Although robins are heavily associated with Christmas time our Robin collection sells well throughout the year.

HIGHLAND COW

Printed in bold reds, oranges and a pop of pink this collection has been a strong seller since it launched in 2014. The love people have for this iconic animal is unwavering which is why I decided to create an additional highland cow range, aptly name Highland Cow Love.

My illustration of Scotland's big, friendly giant is accompanied by delicately drawn fir trees, although the colours in the design are autumnal the items in this collection are popular and sell consistently throughout the year.

STAG

The Stag collection is over 9 years old - it was one of the very first designs we came out with when we launched in 2012! In illustrating the stag I wanted to capture its enigmatic and majestic presence. Printed in brown and blue, the detailed sketch of the stag is complemented by a regimented blue diamond pattern in the background giving what is an otherwise traditional design a modern and contemporary feel.
