WATERS EDGE: A TACTICAL CARD GAME FOR 2-4 PLAYERS

Introducing a game by Catherine Redgate

www.catherine-redgate.co.uk/waters-edge

About Waters Edge

Welcome to Waters Edge, a tiny town tucked away on the edge of the seas. Spend a 'week' catching and selling fish, helping your town to grow. Cast your nets and keep the ice house stocked ready to feed the town-folk, but watch out for storms, whales and cheeky seagulls...

With beautifully illustrated cards, the coast is brought to life in a game you'll want to play again and again.

Watch the trailer: <http://tiny.cc/7bwvzb>

EDGE

- 150+ beautifully illustrated cards by Scottish artist, Catherine Redgate
- A family-friendly tactical card game for 2 - 4 players
- Designed in Scotland and manufactured in the UK
- A successfully funded Kickstarter Project in June 2019 with over 210% of the funding goal reached with support from backers across the world
- Tried and tested by the general public

Read the reviews

- Thoroughly enjoyed it - it'll be a family favourite. Each card is a wee work of art - very impressive.

- Waters Edge is a surprisingly addictive game that feels completely different each time you play it. It really is quite a work of art as well as a unique experience, and it's one I highly recommend to anyone who loves a good game with friends or family.

- Waters Edge has been very well thought out, the rules are reasonably simple, yet allow for quite strategic playing. It really is a family game. It is also very beautifully illustrated

- Totally engaging! It's like a board game with cards and certainly gets the strategic cogs in your brain going. Beautifully illustrated - this game deserves to go big time!
