

THE MOFFAT PERFUME
COMPANY LIMITED

The Moffat Perfume Company is based in the Southern Uplands of the Scottish borders.

The exquisite trio of perfumes created by perfumer Victoria Barr drew inspiration from the spectacular Scottish landscape and islands, which in turn influenced the Gaelic theme for the three fragrances; Flùr Alba, Eilean Alba and Fiodh Alba.

Director of The Moffat Perfume Company, Victoria Barr is also the designer, perfumer and 'nose' behind the beautiful fragrances created by the company. Victoria, studied perfumery under the tuition of a top UK perfumer.

All three fragrances have been created to the highest industry standard, are vegan and are not tested on animals.

FLÙR ALBA

Flùr Alba is a light sparkling, fragrance with citrus top notes, a floral middle and a sandalwood / musk base. It was inspired by the flowers of Scotland and designed in Moffat, a former Spa town, in the Southern Uplands. Flùr means flower and Alba means Scotland in Gaelic.

EILEAN ALBA

Eilean Alba was inspired by the Scottish Islands. Eilean means island in Gaelic and Alba means Scotland. The exquisite fragrance captures the essence of the floral machair of the Hebridean islands. Using some of the finest quality oils available this fragrance is rich in rose absolute and sandalwood.

Eilean Alba was designed in Moffat.

FIODH ALBA

Fiodh Alba is a subtle, mysterious, woody fragrance. It was inspired by Carrifran Wildwood near Moffat and it contains notes of cedarwood, howood and sandalwood, as well as lily of the valley and a touch of lime.

Fiodh means wood in Gaelic and Alba means Scotland. Carrifran Wildwood is an ecological restoration and over 450,000 native trees have been planted in the valley, managed by the Borders Forest Trust. The finest oils have been used in the perfume and Fiodh Alba is a beautiful Scottish gift for birthdays, anniversaries, Christmas or as a holiday momento.

ALSO AVAILABLE IN THE RANGE.
