Quality Handmade Scottish Confectionery

"It trumps other sweet shops hands down for the quality of their produce, particularly mouth-watering macaroon, finger-licking fudge and quite possibly the best tablet in Scotland."

Excerpt from the Scotsman "Recommends" supplement.

A BUSINESS WITH HISTORY

Gordon & Durward was started in 1925 by Mr Durward and his wife who's maiden name was Gordon. In 1947 they sold the business to Daisy and 'Sweetie Geordie' George Anderson, who's son John took over and ran it until 1989. Graham and Caroline Donaldson have, over the past 33 years, steadily expanded the business to a point where the brand of Gordon & Durward is found in the finest retailers across the UK and Ireland. If you run a specialist outlet then you will be pleased to know that Gordon & Durward's success is based on the ethos that we do not supply supermarkets.
