The QuirkyTM Collection

Hello!

I'm Alison and I'm Founder and Creative Director at Limelite Creative based in Falkirk - a graphic design agency providing innovative solutions 'from corporate to quirky'.

As well as helping business brands stand out visually, I have always had a desire to design and launch my own products.

And so, in 2020 The Quirky CollectionTM was born! I believe that my uplifting stationery products and gifts encourage mindfulness, inspire imagination, and enhance self care. They're also fun! Sometimes it's the small things that have the biggest impact!

I am passionate about providing the best value for customers. Everything at The Quirky CollectionTM is produced using local businesses as much as possible, whilst greatly considering sustainability and our environment.

My bespoke creations are already a hit with the children who use them, as well as the many adults who are proud to love a sticker and a colouring in book!

There are lots of exciting ideas underway at The Quirky CollectionTM with ongoing product development and research into sustainable products.

Please have a look through this brochure to discover a range of bespoke gift items! If you like what you see and think we could be a good fit, I would love to work with you! I'd also be delighted to discuss any commissions with you too.

Designed in Falkirk, creating smiles across the globe, there's something for everyone at The Quirky CollectionTM!

If you would to place an order or make an enquiry please email me at hello@thequirkycollection.com.

Thank you!

Alison M Harkins
