Embrace the Art of Engraving

At The Wee Engraving Company in Scotland, we specialise in engraving on slate, wood, and leather, capturing the essence of Scotland's rugged beauty and rich heritage. Our slate items, inspired by Scotland's landscapes, showcase natural textures and colours in custom plaques and decorative coasters, each engraved with precision.

Similarly, our wooden products highlight native Scottish timbers' warmth and character, adding rustic charm to any space with personalised cutting boards and custom wooden signs. Our leather products feature intricate engravings exuding timeless elegance, from personalised journals to embossed wallets, honouring Scotland's tradition of craftsmanship.

A celebration of Scotland

At The Wee Engraving Company, our designs celebrate Scottish traditions with iconic imagery such as the pheasant, highland cow, thistle, hare, and stag. Each engraving is meticulously crafted to capture the essence of Scotland's natural beauty and cultural heritage. The pheasant symbolises Scotland's rich wildlife, while the highland cow represents the country's rugged landscapes. The thistle, a national emblem, embodies resilience and pride, while the hare and stag evoke the spirit of the Scottish countryside.

Our engraving designs are more than just decorative; they tell stories and evoke emotions. Whether you choose a pheasant gracefully etched onto slate, a majestic stag engraved on wood, or a delicate thistle design on leather, our pieces resonate with Scottish charm and authenticity. Each design pays homage to Scotland's traditions, making them meaningful additions to any home or cherished gifts that capture the spirit of this beautiful country.
