Gin Bothy Toasts Great Taste Award Success

Internationally renowned Scottish spirits producer, Gin Bothy, has announced its Raspberry Gin Liqueur has been awarded three stars at the 2024 Great Taste Awards.

Joining the ranks of their Gunshot Gin and Spiced Rum, the accolade marks the third three-star Great Taste Award received by the Angus distiller. The highest distinction, only 2% of products globally receive the title each year, with less than 150 three-star products in the UK. The achievement cements the brand as the Scottish spirits producer with the highest number of Great Taste awards.

Noting its “intense burst of raspberry flavour” and “elegant complexity,” the judges were impressed with the liqueur’s blend of hand-picked local Scottish raspberries and signature Bothy gin, highlighting the liqueur’s “vibrant and refreshing” character.

Founded by Kim Cameron in 2014, Gin Bothy uses traditional production methods to deliver its premium gin, hand-batching, bottling, and labelling of each of its spirits. Initially created as a by-product of jam production, using leftover fruit juices to infuse the gins, the brand has gone on to lead the charge for fruit-infused and Scottish gins.

PICKERING'S GIN

{ THE BOTANICAL ENGINEERS }

“If you can't find what you want, build it yourself”

- Matt Gammell & Marcus Pickering
Pickering's Gin is based on an original Bombay recipe, dating from 17th July 1947. Kept as a family secret for over 77 years, it only resurfaced when our founders Matt and Marcus began distilling in Summerhall in Edinburgh.

As Edinburgh's first exclusive gin distillery in 150 years, we have innovation at our core. From pioneering products like our Gin Baubles to quirky inventions like the Pickering's Fire Engine and feats of botanical engineering, like our Brussels Sprout Gin, we continuously push boundaries.

Over the past decade, we've mastered the art of botanical engineering, producing award-winning gins with an exceptionally smooth finish. Making Pickering's the perfect choice for any occasion.
