annies story

Ten years old, I was handed a sheet of thin cartridge paper, a tin of paints and a paintbrush. This marks the beginning of my story. A story filled with passion, purpose and a heartfelt desire to share my beautiful watercolour art with the world.

Many years later I worked as an Assistant Garden Designer where I nurtured my appreciation for botanical illustration. This led me to study at the Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh, where I was awarded a Certificate in Botanical Art Illustration with Distinction.

'Art by Annie' combines my background in garden design, my botanical art knowledge and my growing set of digital skills.

My style blends the natural looseness of watercolour with my signature delicate detail. My designs are uplifting, authentic and full of joy.

I paint to capture those fleeting yet powerful moments when we are gently reminded to slow down and cherish the extraordinary in everyday.

I can paint anything and really want you to feel proud to have 'art by annie' artwork as part of your story, part of your brand or in your home.
