Araminta Campbell Atelier

About us

Scottish textile designer Araminta Birse-Stewart (née Campbell) founded Araminta Campbell in 2016. Araminta's childhood in Royal Deeside, Scotland, laid the foundation for her creative vision - transforming fleeting moments seen throughout the Scottish landscape into timeless textiles.

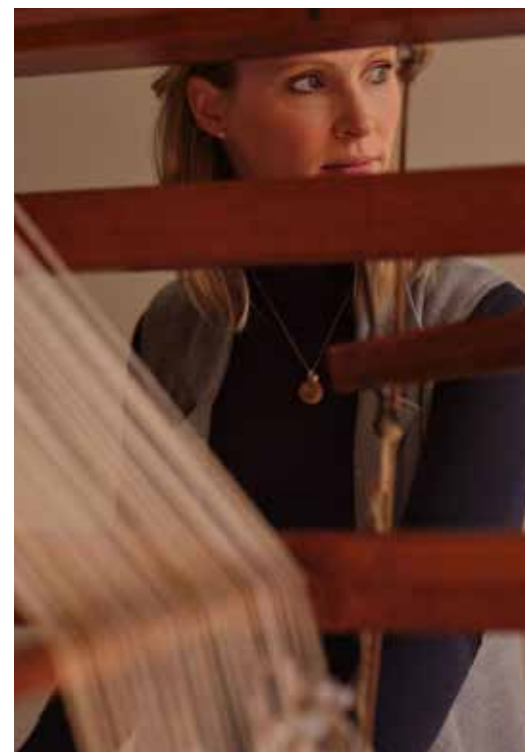

Deeply committed to enduring design, Scottish craftsmanship and the natural world, Araminta Campbell creates heirloom-quality pieces that are much more than beautiful - they are narratives woven into fabric. The brand's ethos is focused on supporting local industry and creating beautiful pieces that will last a lifetime.

With an artist's eye and a natural creative instinct, Araminta has garnered international acclaim for her expertise in woven textiles and Scottish cloth. Her creations are coveted worldwide, celebrated for their beauty, quality, and the unique stories they tell.

*I'm drawn to beauty in the quiet moments - sunlight through leaves, the hidden textures of the Scottish landscape.
I want to weave those feelings into pieces people will treasure.*

The designs

Araminta originally crafted the stunning colours for each tartan using a natural plant dying process, an ancient skill she has been harnessing for the last 20 years. To bring these colours to life at scale sustainably, we work closely with a family-run Scottish dye house that expertly matches Araminta's natural dye palette.

West Coast Waters

Inspired by the west coast of Scotland - cream sand, turquoise sea, ancient grey rocks and warm golden orange lichen.

Amber Riverbank

Drawn from the Autumn banks of the River Dee that flows past Araminta's childhood home in Aberdeenshire, Scotland.

Beech Dappled Skies

The original Araminta Campbell tartan. Serene blue skies filter through the dappling leaves of a beech tree woodland.

Highlands at Dusk

This tartan captures the breathtaking drama as the Scottish Highland skies deepen into dusk.

Highlands at Dawn

Sister to Highlands at Dusk, echoing the glorious vast views of the Scottish Highlands at sunrise.

Autumn Woodland Walk

An Autumn walk through the beech woodlands surrounding Araminta's family home.

Craftsmanship

We work hand-in-hand with rural artisan mills across Scotland in the creation of our pieces. We collaborate with mills deeply rooted in their communities, some of which are over 200 years old.

Each of our partners have been carefully chosen for their unwavering dedication to quality and mastery of traditional techniques, where every part of the process, from setting up the looms to the intricate weaving and meticulous finishing in the darn room, is carried out by skilled craftspeople.

Supporting these Scottish textile businesses is a heartfelt commitment to nurturing local livelihoods and preserving age-old skills passed down through generations.

*In a world where the artistry of textile production is not always honoured as it once was,
we stand as a preserver of the industry, dedicated to upholding its legacy and ensuring its flourishing future.*

Araminta Birse-Stewart,

MINTA

by Araminta Campbell

The background of the entire page is a soft-focus photograph of a natural landscape. In the foreground, there is a field of tall, golden-brown grasses that appear to be blowing in the wind. In the middle ground, a dense forest of dark green trees is visible on a hillside. The sky above is a pale blue with large, white, fluffy clouds. The overall mood is peaceful and natural.
