about VRB

Hello!

I'm Victoria, an illustrator, designer and typographer. I'm based in Edinburgh, a city full of inspiration.

I started my business in 2015 and since then I have been growing my creative brand, creating bespoke illustrations, maps and merchandise that bring stories, places and ideas to life.

My work combines bold, vibrant colour palettes with unusual perspectives to create illustrations that are fun and full of life. Many of these designs have developed into curated product ranges that make perfect gifts for locals and visitors alike.
