

At Henry's Coffee Company we know there are just too many coffee shops all competing to serve the same coffee customer. Our customer's face a constant battle to attract new consumers and to maximise their spend per customer visit. That's why we have developed lots of ways to help our customers stand out from the crowd while serving great tasting coffee. Our focus is all about helping our customers compete in an extremely challenging marketplace. As a result our customers serve more customers, sell more coffee and their business grows.

Here are some of the ways we help.....

- A creative coffee concept that promotes your brand and builds your business
- An eco friendly packaging solution with zero packaging waste delivering customer appeal
- Promoting your business on all social media platforms
- Coffee market research
- Coffee training for staff, as and when required
- A bespoke perfect serve coffee guide
- Coffee Quality Audits
- Coffee machine solutions to match your service style and budget
- Working business owner with business owner
- Competitive pricing delivering best value
