

Internal Justification: Education Estates® SEND & Sustainability Conferences

Date: 5 February 2026 Location: ExCeL London

Free for public sector representatives

Attendance is completely free for public sector delegates, making this a cost-effective way to access CPD-accredited learning and sector insight with no impact on organisational budgets.

Why attendance matters

The conferences provide high value content that supports strategic and operational decision making across SEND, estates and sustainability planning. Delegates gain practical insight they can apply immediately in their roles.

Key benefits

- CPD-accredited sessions covering inclusive design, SEND planning and sustainability in education
- Practical guidance on net zero pathways, retrofit strategies and improving learning environments
- Insight on managing rising SEND demand and future estate planning
- Real-world case studies to inform capital bids and internal proposals
- Networking with local authorities, trusts, estate professionals, SEND specialists and suppliers
- Two conferences in one venue, maximising learning while reducing time out of school or office

What attendees bring back

- Better informed decisions on estate, SEND and sustainability priorities
- New tools and approaches for live projects and upcoming bids
- Stronger evidence for internal approval processes
- Actionable ideas that improve outcomes for learners and support organisational goals
- Contacts and partnerships that can support future work

Summary

Attendance offers significant organisational value at no cost, with practical insights that support strategic planning and project delivery. This is one of the most efficient and effective professional development opportunities available to public sector teams involved in SEND, estates or sustainability.
