Beyond Male Allies by Next Gen Men

Speaker:

- Jake Stika, Co-founder and Executive Director, Next Gen Men and Equity Leaders

Session Description:

The term “Male Allies” is frequently used when advancing gender equity in male-dominant workplaces like Energy, but does it actually capture what it is that we need from men? Hear how to move from benevolent sexism to buy-in to a form of allyship that is active, not passive – a commitment to transforming a system and incurring the necessary costs.
