

The best way to induct your workforce

Rapid's award-winning online induction and training module.

Streamline your safety induction and training processes

Reduce the cost and hassle of manual induction processes and get your employees and contractors trained, compliant, and on the job faster.

“There’s always going to be a cost involved with the induction process, and Rapid is much more cost effective and easier than the previous system that we had.”

Lauren,
SGS Australia’s Operational Integrity Advisor,
South Australia and Northern Territory

Create unlimited courses

Fully customise courses, use our free pre-written courses or upload your pre-purchased SCORM courses.

Speed up workflows

Assign courses based on job role, location, or site. Test inductee comprehension and get them onto site faster.

Dedicated training portal

Inductees enjoy a user friendly, online training portal to login and complete their courses on any device, anytime.

Tailored onboarding

Tailor your courses to suit the needs of different personnel types using Rapid’s simple training matrix.

Dry run for version control

Easily see the impact of changes to new or existing trainee requirements before publishing the changes.

See insights across multiple sites in one platform

No more trawling through spreadsheets and complicated systems. Monitor the compliance status of your entire workforce through Rapid's live dashboards and reports.

Centralised document storage

Easily see which documents are verified, pending, rejected or require verification. Filter by expiry period, personnel type and more.

Automated reports

Generate site specific graphs and set automated monthly reports to keep track of compliance across your organisation.

Receive real time alerts

Automatically notify inductees of expired licences, certificates, or when their refresher training courses are due.

The screenshot displays the 'Workforce' dashboard for 'Rapid'. The main section is titled '597 Documents' and includes a search bar and summary cards for document statuses: 3 Pending, 4 Require verification, 2 Rejected, 0 Expired, and 588 Compliant. A table lists individual documents with columns for Document, Status, Trainee, Uploaded, Expires in, and More. The table shows various document types like 'High Risk Forklift Licence', 'Construction Industry Card', and 'Dangerous Goods Drivers Licence' with their respective statuses and trainee information.
